

Inspirational guest speaker Andy Barrow, a three-time Paralympian and captain of the Team GB 2012 wheelchair rugby team, captivated Tangent staff recently with the story of his personal journey from tragic playing field accident to representing his country at the highest level.

Andy's key messages around 'seizing the opportunity' and 'always giving 100%' chime perfectly with Tangent's own values – values that have powered our transition from a recruitment company serving just the mobile telecom sector to one that's integral to the worldwide evolution of Smart Connected Products.

READ THE ENQUIRER